APPENDIX III: ANTETOKOUNMPO ACADEMY POLICIES AND RULES

Everyone involved is expected to abide by the Academy's fair play policies and ethos.

The Academy aims to provide a positive experience for all involved. An emphasis is placed on development, empowerment, and fun. It is important that we all work together toward our common goals:

(a) RESPECT Each Other

ATHLETES – On and off the court, respect for one another is considered a given. Shaking hands, and assisting one another before and after training or playing a game is of the utmost importance. Name calling, bullying and the like is not acceptable and will not be tolerated.

PARENTS – All athletes/players form part of our community and we must always ensure that everyone is accorded respect and treated fairly. Like you, the parents and guardians of fellow players and opponents are at the court to watch their children have fun, develop new skills, and meet new friends.

(b) RESPECT Coaches, Athletes, Staff, and Officials

Across the Academy Program, basketball officials, athletes, and even junior trainers are all involved in delivering the training practices, and referees are on hand to run tournaments. Any public attempt made by parents or athletes to undermine Academy officials and/or staff (e.g. rude gestures, yelling, and so on) is not acceptable and will not be tolerated.

If any issue arises involving an official or another player, the Head Coach should be contacted in private to inform them of the situation. Do not approach or yell at other children, parents, officials, or coaches.

(c) FOCUS ON PLAYING, NOT WINNING

The Program's main goal is to help develop children's minds and bodies. Through team sport, they will experience both winning and losing, which helps children learn to work hard in order to achieve their goals. We teach participating athletes to stay humble whether they're winning or losing, and to act as a member of a broader team. Equal playing/exercise time for all athletes serves to encourage the team as a whole instead of focusing on the best player.
